ORDER

The University considered the applications submitted by various Educational Agencies for starting new Unaided Law Colleges for the academic year 2022-'23 and constituted Inspection Commissions to assess the instructional and infrastructural facilities provided by the educational agencies for the proposed colleges.

After considering the reports submitted by the Inspection Commissions, the University sought the views of the Government in the matter under Statutes 9.7, Chapter 23, Mahatma Gandhi University Statutes 1997 and Clause 4.4.5 , UGC Regulations 2009.

The Govt. vide its letter read as paper 2 above, informed the University that presently the Govt. is not considering the matter of sanctioning new law colleges.

The Syndicate sub Committee on Affiliation & Approval at its meeting held on 21.11.2022, vide minutes item read as paper 3 above, examined the matter and recommended not to consider the applications submitted by various agencies for starting new law colleges for the academic year 2022-23, in view of the stance of the Govt. in the matter.

The Pro Vice Chancellor in charge of the Vice Chancellor, by exercising the powers under Chapter III, Section 10(17) of the Mahatma Gandhi University Act,1985, has approved the aforesaid recommendation.

Orders are issued accordingly.
