ANNEXURE 1

GUIDELINES FOR REDOING INTERNAL ASSESSMENT UNDER COMMON REGULATION FOR THE FIVE YEAR INTEGRATED DOUBLE DEGREE LL.B(HONORS) COURSES, 2018

The students governed by this Regulation are allowed ONE chance per subject/paper (excluding clinical/practical papers) for redoing internal assessment strictly subject to the following Guidelines.

1. The entitlement to redo internal assessment will be available only to the candidates who have completed the study period of the respective Course/Programme (Five Years) for which they have enrolled as a student and there will be only be a single opportunity for the same.
2. The entitlement to redo internal assessment will be available only to the candidates who have failed in theory paper(s) in the regular or supplementary examination(s) and are yet to successfully complete and secure a pass in the Course/ Programme on account of that.
3. A candidate who fails to score more than 50% of the aggregate 25 marks (rounded of to 13 marks) in theory paper(s) in the regular internal assessment alone shall be eligible to redo the internal assessment.

4. An application for redoing internal assessment shall be made within one year from the date of written examination in the last subject in the final semester of the course concerned conducted by the University. Provided that, the limitation of one year shall be reckoned from the date of coming into effect of these Guidelines for students in whose case the one-year period cannot be availed due to lapse of time.

5. The eligibility for redoing internal assessment shall generally be limited to one paper for every semester. Provided that, if any student has not availed the benefit of redoing the internal marks in a paper in any semester, the eligibility for the same may be carried forward to any paper in any other semester, subject to a maximum of TEN papers in total for the entire Course/Programme.

6. Only one chance shall be allowed for re-doing internal assessment for a student in a particular subject/paper. If the candidate is eligible for re-doing internal assessment for more than one paper/subject and if he desires to do so, a single application should be made for the purpose for all the papers.

7. Each student who fulfills the above conditions and intends to re-do the internal assessment should make an application to the University and remit the prescribed fee per paper, as fixed by the University. The application for re-doing internal assessment for all papers/subjects (subject to the eligibility fixed) shall be done at a stretch. The fee at the prescribed rate for all the papers/ subjects for which the candidate desires to re-do internal assessment shall be paid at a single instance.

8. On verification of the eligibility of the student for re-doing internal assessment, the University may issue an order to the department/college/ institution concerned for the purpose.

9. The Head of the department/college/institution, on receipt of the University Order, shall make arrangements to enable re-doing the internal assessment subject to the condition that the teacher who evaluated the regular internal assessment of the candidate shall not be entrusted with the evaluation of the internal assessments when the same is redone.

10. The student shall re-do the required components (excluding attendance) of internal assessment as instructed by the teacher concerned in accordance with the Scheme, Syllabus and Regulations applicable to the candidate concerned. The component of marks for attendance, if any (including zero marks), awarded to the candidate in the regular internal assessment shall be carried forward and reckoned during redoing of internal assessment enabling an assessment for a maximum of 25 marks. A maximum of 90 working days may be given for completing the internal assessment process by the teacher concerned.

11. The Head of the department/college/institution shall maintain a purposive supervision of the modalities for redoing internal assessment and ensure that the same is accomplished on par with the regular internal assessment in all respects.

12. The revised marks shall be forwarded from the department/college/Institution to the University within 100 working days from receipt of the University order sanctioning redoing internal assessment.

13. All documents related to each application shall be properly maintained in the office for record keeping and future reference.

14. The marks secured while redoing internal assessment shall be added to the results of the written examination (regular or supplementary) in which the candidate has scored the highest mark in the subject. The candidate shall submit copy of the mark list(s) along with the application for redoing internal assessment.

15. The month and year of passing of the subject consequent to the redoing of internal assessment shall be considered as the month and year of passing the subject and reflected in the mark sheet accordingly.
